

Expense & Reimbursement Policy

Acme Logistics Ltd — Finance Department

Effective Date: January 1, 2026 (Fictional Demo Document)

1. Purpose & Scope

This policy governs business expense reimbursement for Acme Logistics Ltd employees. All expenses must be reasonable, necessary, and directly related to company business.

This is a fictional policy document for demonstration purposes only.

2. General Guidelines

Submit expenses within 30 days of incurring them via the Acme Expense Portal.

Original receipts are required for all expenses over $25. Credit card statements alone are not sufficient.

Personal expenses mixed with business travel must be separated on receipts before submission.

Employees may not approve their own expenses. All submissions route to the employee's direct manager.

3. Spending Limits

Meals (individual): Up to $35 per meal domestically; $50 internationally.

Meals (client entertainment): Up to $150 per person with prior manager approval for groups exceeding 4 people.

Domestic airfare: Economy class for flights under 6 hours; premium economy permitted for flights over 6 hours with director approval.

Hotels: Up to $200/night in tier-2 cities; $275/night in tier-1 cities (New York, San Francisco, London).

Ground transport: Rideshare or taxi for business travel; personal vehicle reimbursed at $0.67/mile.

Office supplies under $100: May be purchased directly; items over $100 require purchase order.

4. Approval Workflow

Under $500: Direct manager approval within 5 business days.

$500–$2,000: Manager approval plus Finance review within 7 business days.

Over $2,000: Requires director approval and Finance pre-authorization before purchase.

Rejected expenses are returned with comments. Employees may resubmit with corrected documentation within 14 days.

Reimbursements are processed on the 15th and last business day of each month via direct deposit.

5. Non-Reimbursable Items

Personal travel upgrades, mini-bar charges, in-room movies, traffic fines, and childcare during business travel.

Alcohol unless specifically approved for client entertainment with documented business purpose.

Gym memberships, personal insurance, and commuting costs for regular office attendance.
